

MESSAGE FOR THE VESSEL

MESSAGE FOR THE VESSEL

A question was asked about how the vessel can bring messages to others.

Set your intention to be so totally empty that I may pour forth that which is appropriate at any time for any brother who comes to you—being always willing, ready, and desirous to do so—and think nothing else in your mundane life more important than allowing Me to come through you to a brother. This can be done anywhere, even on a train. The persons who come to you can present their own questions. As you allow your consciousness to melt into Mine and you trust Me—and you do—then you will know that what comes forth is what they need. And as your Master Jesus said, “You will know by the fruits” [see Matt 7:16], and the fruits of My message—My blessings to your brothers—are Love, pure Love, unlimited Love; Love that does not even need to forgive, for it sees nothing to forgive; a Love that simply urges each brother who comes to you to accept that Love and allow it to flow through his own heart. But first, for many, they must feel My Love coming forth through you and know, be assured, so that their fear is lifted. For those in fear will surely not know My Presence. Fear is a great block. And once My Love is known through experience, they will know that It always was, for fear is only a phantom created by those who have simply forgotten about Me, who become fearful and feel insecure in their own creations.

A question was asked about requests for messages about mundane things.

Trivial things have little importance, but you can rest assured that if something that might appear to some as trivial is of great importance, you will receive it from Me so that it may be lovingly placed into the hearts of your brothers. You accept to be empty, and I will give what is needed; and that which is only an obstruction and causes nothing but delay to your brothers will not be given. How could My Love be expressed by doing such?

A question was asked as to whether the bringing of messages is the best way for the vessel to assist in allowing the comfort and Love of God to come to others.

It is a way, a very effective way, but it is also important for you to remember that there is no limit to the number of ways I might ask you to allow Me to extend an experience of My Love. Simply giving a smile may be what is appropriate in that moment for a brother, as you well know already. You would not want to confine yourself to one way and, therefore, deny many brothers blessings when you can simply be empty and allow Me to use myriad ways to bless them. Allow Me to lead you into whatever ways I would have you go. And now, you have begun to trust Me, so just release the doubts, and trust. It will bring joy both to you and your brothers, my child.

A question was asked about health problems.

At this point trust Me totally and trust that I give all blessings that you need, but also keep in mind that you now have a purpose beyond your own personal desires, and your greater purpose is to allow Me to extend blessings to your brothers. Now, if you have a brother who has limitations and pain and would not be able to accept blessings from Me brought to him by an angel, then I don't send an angel. But if you have a brother who can accept from another brother who has been in his shoes, who knows exactly what he has been through, who knows the depths of woe, who knows despair and understands, then surely I will send one who has known this. So, if you still have limitations, there is no reason for you to have them except that they serve a holy purpose. Now, accept in your experience that all blessings come to you from Me and that I withhold nothing, but you have accepted to be as much in love with your brothers as yourself. You accept to come to your brothers in whatever way is going to make it the easiest for them, so what might appear to be a little limitation is just something you accept as a garment you put on to come before them. But you know within your heart there is no limitation and no need you actually have; for you rest in My arms, you know you rest in My arms, and you delight in that. You also know that I delight in your love. And when you come before me each day to say, "Father, I love you, I don't know why, but I love You because of what You are," you know that you rush into My arms and My embrace at that moment. You have no needs. You have no concerns.
